Cadwell Park Case A - £130 (RRP £174)

6 bottles Louis Latour Bourgogne Cuvee Latour White 2014

An unoaked white wine from heart of Burgundy. Grapes were sourced from the villages Meursault, Puligny and Chassagne and combined with grapes from the Côte Chalonnaise. This results in a full-fledged and authentic white Burgundy with the consistency and finesse of the great white Villages.

6 bottles Louis Latour Bourgogne Cuvee Latour Red 2014

This wine is made from 100% Pinot Noir grapes sourced from the lesser-known yet well placed vineyards of the southern Côte-d'Or, including small parcels of superior Santenay or Auxey-Duresses grapes. The result is a wine that is reminiscent of a fine Côtes de Beaune.

Cadwell Park Case B - £165 (RRP £210)

6 bottles Louis Latour Saint Veran Les Deux Moulins 2014

Louis Latour Saint-Véran 'Les Deux Moulins' is a white wine from the South of Burgundy made from the Chardonnay grape.. Saint-Véran is the name of the growing area from where this wine comes. It is located to the south west of the town of Mâcon and lies next to the well-known appellation of Pouilly-Fuissé. This wine is made without the use of oak, it is medium-bodied, fresh and fruity, with quince and yellow peach flavours.

6 bottles Louis Latour Marsannay Rouge 2014

Marsannay is the village which marks the northern gateway to the Côte d'Or heading south from the town of Dijon. Red wines from Marsannay are made from Pinot Noir and generally lively and robust; characteristics that come from the rich iron soil.. Louis Latour began to work closely with growers in the region in the 1990s soon after the area was awarded AOC status. They released their first wine in 1996. Today they have an exclusively contract with 5 hectares of vineyard which are sustainably farmed.

Cadwell Park Case C - £350 (RRP £456)

6 bottles Louis Latour Meursault 2014

Meursault is the most extensive southerly white wine commune of the Côte-d'Or. The perfect south-easterly exposure and the stony, marl soil of the vineyards contribute greatly to the remarkable finesse of its wines. Meursault wines tend to be full and mellow wines and mature sooner than the wines from the neighbouring communes of Puligny and Chassagne.

6 bottles Louis Latour Aloxe-Corton 2014

Aloxe-Corton has been the home of the Latour family and the heart of Domaine Louis Latour for centuries. The village is located in the north of the Côte de Beaune on a stony hillside at the foot of the hill of Corton. This wine is full and structured with cherry, mocha and liquorice notes.
