

Table Top Rally edition 16: William Morris' Test Drive

Coloured Roads Only, except where noted.

Starting from Nuffield Place (worth a visit!) at 677876

Section 1: To drive you dotty

Using two sections of white, each approx. 300m long. Since it is early, no drinking! (So not passing any PH)

Then pass through exactly 14 ● and 1 ◆

To finish just before the church by the Maharajah's Well at 677840½ (and therefore the green dot hiding under the church is NOT included in the 14 above.)

Section 2: 'Erring on the side of caution

Not all white roads (dashed lines) are shown, just those to define the route and a couple of others to help:

To just after the Payables Farm Junction at 654824

Section 3: Roughly coloured tulips

White roads are only indicated where they are used.

Tulips are in order, but quite roughly drawn!

For the other directions, Imagine you are standing in the middle of a junction. The first letter is the colour of the road you arrived on. Successive letters are the roads clockwise around the junction. Leave on the road that is highlighted!
